

Future Leaders Program Fellowships 2022-2023

Organizational Overview

The mission of the Aldo Leopold Foundation \(ALF\) is to foster the land ethic through the legacy of Aldo Leopold. Based in Baraboo, Wisconsin, we manage, interpret, and preserve the renowned Leopold Shack and Farm (a National Historic Landmark), which receives thousands of visitors each year. Our care of this special place continues the Leopold family tradition while demonstrating on-the-ground conservation relevance for the 21st Century. Offsite, too, we reach regional, domestic, and international audiences through a variety of education and land stewardship programs. We impart Leopold's land ethic as described in A Sand County Almanac—the book for which Leopold is most widely known—actively engaging educators, citizens, natural resource professionals, and landowners to improve land health in their own communities.

The Aldo Leopold Foundation headquarters is in an idyllic setting surrounded by 600 acres of foundation-owned property and an additional 16,000 acres managed collaboratively among public and private landowners as an Important Bird Area \(IBA\). The Leopold Center, constructed in 2007, is a LEED Certified Platinum “green” building that is home to the foundation's office space and visitor center.

Future Leaders (Fellowship) Program Overview

Leadership in conservation is a critical piece to solving the ongoing and emerging environmental issues of today. The Aldo Leopold Foundation's Future Leaders Program is designed to provide individuals who have recently completed a bachelor's degree the opportunity to gain experience and grow in seven core areas: conservation leadership, finance and fundraising, applied science and natural history, partnership building, strategic planning, communication, and land ethics. Each of these areas is addressed through a professional development series and applied on-the-job experiences that allow for exploration of each topic and time for each fellow to practice and apply these key elements of leadership.

Future Leaders Program Fellowships specialize in two program areas, Education & Communication or Land Stewardship, each receive exposure to other program areas and organization-wide efforts. Fellows also have the opportunity to interact with both a diverse range of conservation professionals and the Leopold family, who play active roles in guiding and executing the foundation's mission.

All applicants must be eligible to work in the United States at the time they apply and have a valid driver's license. Fellows must commit full-time to the entire 12-month program.

Land Stewardship Fellow Position Impact Statement

The Land Stewardship Fellows contribute to a wide variety of land management and monitoring activities on foundation property and across the Leopold-Pine Island Important Bird Area. In addition, Land Stewardship Fellows support and participate in an array of on-site programming, creating opportunities for audiences to join the foundation in its work to advance a land ethic and land health locally and globally.

Land Stewardship Fellow Position Summary

The Land Stewardship Fellowship is a unique opportunity to work side by side with experienced staff applying your existing knowledge and skills while learning new ones, ultimately enhancing your own land ethic. Surrounding Aldo Leopold's famous Shack, the property has both restored and remnant native Wisconsin habitat ranging from prairies to floodplain forests to sedge meadows to oak savannas. This diverse outdoor classroom provides opportunities to learn first-hand about native plant communities, identify threats to native landscapes, and gain effective tools and strategies to effectively manage a number of diverse ecosystems. As seasons change, management focuses on different activities including invasive species control, prescribed burning, monitoring, timber stand improvement, educational programming, prairie planting, and more.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

- Assist with land management activities on the Leopold-Pine Island Important Bird Area. This includes but is not limited to prescribed fire, herbaceous and woody invasive species treatment, timber stand improvement, prairie planting and establishment, brush management, plant identification, mowing etc.
- Document management activities in summary reports, grant tracking documents, etc.
- Maintain foundation equipment and vehicles. Includes routine maintenance, shop organization, equipment repair, etc.
- Attend professional development trainings focusing on the seven core areas of the Future Leaders Program outlined above and complete an independent project. These trainings will constitute approximately 20-30% of the total fellowship hours.
- Provide support and logistics for on-site programming including crane congregation tours, property tours for outside groups, Shack tours, educational programming, front desk staffing, etc.
- Become familiar with the life and work of Aldo Leopold and his family. Explore your own connection to and understanding of land ethics.
- Become familiar with the work of all foundation staff and how each member contributes to the mission.
- Other tasks as assigned.

Qualifications Summary

The Aldo Leopold Foundation seeks applicants who have recently completed a bachelor's degree in environmental studies, environmental sciences, or a natural resources-related field. Applicants should have an interest in and passion for learning about the complex and interdependent world of conservation. The ideal candidate will have demonstrated leadership skills and be adaptable, energetic, and eager to learn. Fellows must be prepared for physically demanding work in a variety of conditions including extreme heat and cold, standing high water, and exposure to ticks and mosquitoes.

Fellowship Term, Schedule, and Compensation

This is a limited-term, full-time, non-exempt position. The fellowship will begin on Tuesday, June 6th, 2023 and run through May 18, 2024. Education & Communication Fellows will have a Tuesday-Saturday schedule June through November 2023 and May 2024, and a Monday-Friday schedule December 2023 through April 2024. Forty hours a week can be expected, primarily during normal business hours (9:00 am to 5:00 pm daily), although some flexibility in scheduling may be required. Land Stewardship Fellows will work Monday-Friday schedule most months, except during April and November when more weekend work may be required. All fellows will be paid $11/hour and receive 40 hours of vacation, 48 hours of sick leave, and 48 hours of floating holiday. Housing is provided on campus in the Future Leaders Center. Fellows will move into the Future Leaders Center on Monday, June 5, 2023. All fellows will receive $250 gear stipend to be spent on field gear or attire once onboard. All personal protective equipment will be provided.

Approximate Hiring Timeline

Applications Due: Wednesday, February 1, 2023

Zoom Interviews: Mid-February (tentative week of Feb 13th)

Fellowship Start Date: June 6, 2023

Application Procedure

To apply complete the application process by Wednesday, February 1, 2023.

1. Applicants must have two academic and/or professional references complete the Fellowship Reference Form located here by February 1, 2023. Direct link: <https://survey.alchemer.com/s3/7139904/referenceform2023>
2. Submit your application materials (resume, cover letter, and essay) to <https://survey.alchemer.com/s3/7139873/FLP2023> .
 1. Resume (no more than two pages)
 2. One-page cover letter
 3. A 400 or less word response to the following prompt: Describe how you see a land ethic being relevant to issues and opportunities we face in natural and human communities in 2023.

Contact Alanna Koshollek at alanna@aldoleopold.org with questions using the subject line: 2023 Fellowship Application.

The Aldo Leopold Foundation recognizes that just as a healthy ecosystem depends on biodiversity, a healthy human society depends on cultural and social diversity. We are committed to expanding the conversation on land ethics by acting to achieve a rich diversity of staff, board, volunteers, members, supporters, and those we seek to engage with our programming. We encourage applicants to address this foundation goal in their application materials.

The Aldo Leopold Foundation provides equal employment opportunities (EEO) to all employees and applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability status, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law. In addition to federal law requirements, ALF complies with applicable state and local laws governing nondiscrimination in employment. This policy applies to all terms and conditions of employment, including recruiting, hiring, placement, promotion, termination, layoff, recall, transfer, leaves of absence, compensation, and training.